HANDOUT 1: The learning process

In every field of life, not only in business, it is very important to understand that we make mistakes because we are not perfect, and this is not a failure, but part of the learning process. If we want to learn, evolve and improve ourselves, without a doubt, we will fail. However, getting up and moving forward makes us stronger, braver and wiser. It gives us a collection of reasons to be proud.
